Asbury Park Convention of Educators Eager for Roosevelt's Address.

ASBURY PARK, July 6.-With an army of nearly 30,000 educators within this summer settlement by the sea is buzzing. Asbury is certainly making people sit up and take notice; but to hers since the National Educational Association came with the beginning of the week, she is to have no less than the Public School Libraries Discussed. head and front of the Government to

Hememan, of Arkansas; Secretary, Irwin Shepard, of Winona, Minn.; Treaurer, J. A. Wilkinson of Kansas. Easily the biggest question considered to-day by any of the departments of the association was "Child Study in the University and College. It was twenty-five years ago that President Hall and Dr. Bowditch made their historic investigations and gave impetus to the movement. The greatest progress of the past year along this line is considered by educators to have een in the dissemination of Hall's work on "Adolescence." In the opinion of the Department of Child Study people sit up and take notes, no single publication of a crown the distinction that has been be compared to it, except Darwin's
